

Behavior Advantage Behavior Contract

This contract is an agreement between

Student		Parent/Caregiver (if applicable)
Teacher/Staff
Start Date		Review Date

Goal(s)

(What specific, observable behaviors will the student work on? Be positive and achievable.)

1.
2.

Strategies to Support Success

(What will the student, teacher, and caregivers do to help meet the goals?)

Student:
Teacher/Staff:
Parent/Caregiver:

If the goal(s) are met, _____ will earn

If the goal(s) are not met

--

Examples: playing Connect Four with a teacher, having lunch with a peer, drawing time, homework pass, extra recess, etc.

Agreement

We agree to work together on this contract

Student Signature		Date
Teacher/Staff Signature		Date
Parent/Caregiver Signature		Date

Behavior Advantage Note: A behavior contract works best when it is simple, positive, and built on what motivates this student. Reinforcers should match student preferences—not just tangible rewards.